

Stephan Hadjam

Director

German based in Berlin.

Though a calm and demure gentleman, one cannot help but be inspired by Stephan's passion for the moving image and his respect for his "collaborators." Having shot beauty and lifestyle spots all around the world for numerous brands such as Garnier, Bayer, Webber, BMW, Clear, Heineken and many more.

Stephan has recently parlayed his aesthetic into work for luxury automotive brands, most recently with spots for BMW and Peugeot. He has the unique ability to shoot cars in a languid, regal manner that pairs impressive visuals, architecture, light and movement with the prowess, power and design of today's top models.

Stephan brings his sense of style, taste and grace to all of his work.
